When you are confident you can pass the road rules theory test, you will need to sit a computerised theory test at a Driver and Vehicle Services (DVS) centre, regional DoT office or agent. You can undertake the theory test when you apply for your learners permit. You will need to pay a fee. All tests must commence before 3.45 pm. You do not need to make an appointment to sit the theory test at any metro DVS centre. You may need to call ahead at our regional DVS centres or agents. If you do not pass, you will need to resit the test on another day and pay a resit fee. Oral theory test You may be eligible to complete the theory test orally, if you have difficulty reading or using computers. If required, the oral theory test can be conducted in a language other than English using NAATI translators. For more information, ask about an oral theory test when you apply for your learners permit. 100% (1) 100% found this document useful, undefined Spreading Knowledge Across the World United States, United Kingdom, India, Nigeria, Philippines, Pakistan, Nepal, Singapore, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Ghana, United Arab Emirates, Kenya, Canada, Malaysia, Australia, Iran, South Africa, Uganda, France, Ireland, Egypt, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Thailand, Sri Lanka, Cameroon, Hong Kong, Spain, Vietnam, New Zealand, Japan, Brazil, Saudi Arabia, Zambia, Czechia, Italy, Russia, Myanmar (Burma), Netherlands, Germany, Romania, Mexico, Rwanda, Sierra Leone, Turkey, Zimbabwe, Poland, Iraq, Cyprus, Algeria, Liberia, Greece, Jamaica, Malawi, Qatar, Portugal, South Korea, Argentina, Colombia, Morocco, Peru, Kuwait, Lithuania, Finland, Somalia, Israel, Bulgaria, Chile, Hungary, Trinidad & Tobago, Uzbekistan, Ukraine, Sweden, Kazakhstan, Norway, Macedonia, Benin, Switzerland, Oman, Botswana, Belgium, Ecuador, Slovakia, China, Croatia, Brunei, Serbia, Papua New Guinea, Bahrain, Guyana, Denmark, Lesotho, Lebanon, Jordan, Azerbaijan, Latvia, Cambodia, Namibia, Mauritius, Austria, Mongolia, Albania, Libya, Gambia, Taiwan, Bhutan, Venezuela, Dominican Republic, Tunisia, Luxembourg, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Guatemala, Solomon Islands, Guam, Costa Rica, Yemen, Bolivia, and many more ...
